FISCAL NOTE

HB 363 - SB 888

March 6, 2007

SUMMARY OF BILL: Eliminates the right of a municipality to annex by ordinance based upon its own initiative.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Forgo Local Govt. Revenues – Exceeds $100,000/Permissive Local Govt. Expenditures – Cost Avoidance – Exceeds $100,000/Permissive

Increase Local Govt. Revenues – Exceeds $100,000/Permissive Increase Local Govt. Expenditures – Exceeds $100,000/Permissive

Assumptions:

- If fewer annexations occur under the provisions of this bill, cities will forego revenues they would have received and avoid the cost of providing services to the territory that would have been annexed in the absence of the bill.
- If fewer annexations occur under the provisions of this bill, counties will experience increase revenues and expenditures.
